2019 DCMEA Elementary All-County Orchestra

Mr. Steven Fayette, Conductor

Ms. Catherine Lang and Mrs. Allison McCann, Chairpersons

Steven Fayette began his musical life hoping to carve out a career as an orchestral bassist. He is fortunate to count Henry Neubert, David Perlman, John Schaeffer and Julius Levine as his teachers. All provided him with equal doses of first-rate instruction and incredibly deep kindness. It is a debt he hopes to repay.

With his wife, the prominent violist and teacher Leslie Fayette, he decided that a life spent teaching and living in the country suited him better. Now over thirty years later, he looks back with great satisfaction at his tenure as part of the music faculty at the Shoreham-Wading River School District on Long Island's bucolic east end. Spending his entire teaching career there, he found real happiness teaching every level of string student. He retired in 2015.

Along the way, he and Leslie were always involved in the North Shore Suzuki School, becoming owners in 2007.

Mr. Fayette and his wife raised four children, all who became professional musicians, while working since 1987 to restore their 200-year-old home in Wading River.

A proud son of Central New York's Leatherstocking Country, he and the missus have recently retired to a nice place on 36 acres outside Rome, New York about ten minutes from where he grew up. He continues to act as the State String Coordinator for NYSSMA and is enjoying getting reacquainted with his bass.
