2019 DCMEA Junior High All-County Chorus

Mr. Dennis Creighton, Conductor

Mr. Shaun Cunningham & Mrs. Susan Wright, Chairpersons

Mrs. Rebecca Correllus, Accompanist

A native of Potsdam, New York, Mr. Creighton is a graduate of the Crane School of Music where he received both his Bachelors and Masters in Music Education. He also holds a Masters of Liberal Studies with a Literature focus as well as a Masters from Stony Brook in their Educational District Leadership program. He serves as the coordinator for his music department.

Mr. Creighton is the conductor of the Shoreham-Wading River High School Concert Choir. This groups past performances include: Carmina Burana by Orff, The Chichester Psalms by Bernstein, and many pieces by modern composers such as Arnesen, Runestad, and Whitacre. He serves as the musical vocal director and directs Vocal Express, a choir specializing in the collegiate a cappella style. His school recently performed West Side Story, Kiss Me, Kate, and Chess under his theatrical and vocal direction.

Mr. Creighton is also an active performer. He has appeared in several shows in the past year including: Bridges of Madison County (Bud), We Will Rock You (Buddy), and Fun Home (Bruce). He also performs as a guest soloist with ensembles around Long Island.

Mr. Creighton has served as a guest conductor for several Area All-State and All-County festivals across New York State. He is thrilled to have the opportunity to return to what Long Islanders call "Upstate." He would like to thank the chairpersons, the students, their teachers, and the student's parents for their hard work and dedication in making this concert a success.

Mrs. Meghan Cabral, Conductor

Mr. Nicholas Sowul & Mr. Daniel Dunninger, Chairpersons

Meghan Cabral currently teaches Middle School Band in Carmel, NY. In addition to her teaching duties at George Fischer Middle School as the director for the Fifth, Seventh, and Eight Grade Bands, she acts as the school's Professional Growth Coordinator. Meghan's bands have received Gold and Gold With Distinction ratings at NYSSMA Majors festivals. Her middle school students have been selected for NYSBDA Honors Band. Meghan began the George Fischer Middle School Clarinet Choir and in its second year, was selected to perform at the New Jersey Music Educator's Conference.

Meghan received her Undergraduate Degree in Music Education from Ithaca College, her Master's Degree in Music Education from Western Connecticut University, and an advanced Master's Degree in Educational Leadership from Bank Street Teacher's College.

Meghan stays active as an author for Music Education Publications. Additional articles have been published in the Instrumentalist Magazine, Music Educator's Journal, NYSBDA's Band Stand, NYSSMA's School Music News, NJMEA's Tempo Magazine, School Band and Orchestra Magazine, as well as on many blogs including NAFME's educator's blog, Smart Music Blog, and Band Director's Talk Shop. In addition to her article contributions, Meghan was a 2017 Grammy Music Educator Semifinalist.

As a clinician, Meghan has presented at the Ithaca College MENC sponsored College Conference, the Connecticut Music Educator's Conference, New Jersey's Music Educator's Association State Conference, as well as the NYSSMA All-State Conference. Meghan is currently serving as the NYSSMA Zone 10 Representative.

Meghan has had an active Private Clarinet Studio since 2003. Her private students have been accepted into Area All-State, NYSBDA Middle and High School Honors Band, NYSSMA All-State, NAFME sponsored All-Nationals Ensemble, as well as have been accepted to many of the country's top music schools.

Meghan has served as guest conductor for many Elementary, Junior High School, and Area All-State festivals across the state and is co-founder of the Arts on the Lake Summer Band Camp in Carmel, NY.

2019 DCMEA Junior High All-County

Wind Ensemble

Mr. Michael Treat, Conductor

Mrs. Rebecca Daniels and Mr. Jim Weinrich, Chairpersons

Michael Treat is a music educator, performer and composer in Central New York State. He holds both a M.M. and B.M in Music Education from Ithaca College and is currently Director of Bands at DeWitt Middle School and director of the Ithaca High School Jazz Band in Ithaca, NY. He is the trumpet instructor at the Ithaca College Summer Music Academy Intermediate Division and a faculty member at the Opus Ithaca Jazz Camp. He was an instrumental music teacher in the Kingston City School District from 2008-2003 and prior to that was Director of Music at the EAC Montessori School of Ithaca.

Mike has had the pleasure of guest directing concert and jazz band bands at district, county, and Area All-State levels. He has directed ensembles and taught improvisation workshops for numerous schools and summer programs and has presented to the CMEA and the Ulster County Music Educators on topics related to teaching improvisation. He is a contributing author to a soon to be released text on jazz pedagogy.

As a performer, Mike has played with numerous jazz groups, wind bands, brass quintets, and pit orchestras. He has had the pleasure of collaborating with some of the world's finest jazz artists including Wynton Marsalis, Wycliffe Gordon, Paquito D'Rivera and Larry Grenadier. He has performed at the Blue Note and Iridium Jazz Clubs in New York and has appeared with ensembles in France and Aruba. He leads and composes for the Mike Treat Quintet and is a former member of the Fall Creek Brass Band.

Beyond making music, Mike enjoys spending time with his family and is an active outdoorsman. He resides happily in Ithaca, NY with his wife, Erin, and his sons, Hayden and Kieran.
